

Sania's Clients Keep Coming Back

Sania's personal and professional service keeps her clients coming back to her for their Real Estate needs. More times over, Sania is given the opportunity to sell the same house twice, as her clients continue to call her year after year. Sania has clients that she has maintained a professional relationship with for over 20 years.

"Sania transformed a potentially difficult transaction into a smooth and pleasurable experience. With her attention to every detail, she made us feel confident that all issues were going to be handled in a professional and successful manner.

What else can we say, Sania rocks! "
-Bill and Connie Rea-

"Sania's knowledge of the housing market in the Sarasota area is clearly evident. Her professionalism, expertise and tenacity alleviated any sense of hesitation I may have had in purchasing my new home. A arduous task became a pleasant experience and I look forward to spending time in Sarasota knowing my home best meets my lifestyle." -Monica R. Barile, Esq.-

"As a resident of New York, I was looking to buy an investment property, not knowing that I would end up in Sarasota. Sania's knowledge and guidance let me to buy and sell three properties, and now she is working on my fourth! I have known Sania for over 20 years and find her to be honest, dependable and high energy! Her success is the personal touch she gives to each one of her transactions."
